BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION

The Economic Specialist is responsible for researching and drafting cables and other reports on policy, legal, and business developments in the high-tech, digital economy, cybersecurity, intellectual property rights (IPR), and labor sectors. The Specialist is required to develop a vast network of senior-level contacts in the Taiwan central administration, legislative branch, business, and academia who work in these areas and coordinate the execution of events and conferences with local Taiwan partners and other U.S. agencies. The Specialist will also develop concepts and strategies for new U.S.-Taiwan cooperative programs, then coordinate their implementation.

The Economic Specialist also: assesses developments in the above areas through primary research of published materials and the cultivation and maintenance of a wide range of mid and senior level contacts within the local authorities, private companies, industry associations, think tanks, and academia; performs statistical analysis and, through self-initiative, drafts factual and analytical reports for voluntary and required reporting; drafts briefing papers, provides background information on an as-needed basis to supervisors or section chief, and briefs U.S. and other visitors on U.S.-Taiwan economic relations, legislative developments, and domestic industries; organizes conferences and participates in and provides interpretation for meetings; facilitates exchanges between AIT or U.S. representatives and local authorities or businesses; translates technical information as needed; backs up the section's economic specialist on macro-economic issues; coordinates preparation of daily economic press summaries.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED

Applicants must address each required qualification listed below with specific information supporting each item. Failure to do so may result in a determination that the applicant is not qualified.

Education: Master's degree in Economics, Business, Engineering, Law, or another related field is required.

Prior Work Experience: At least six years of progressively responsible experience as an analyst or manager in an economic or business field, in strategic aspects of a technology-oriented industry, and/or in legal research and analysis is required.

Language: Level 4 proficiency in English and Level 4 in Mandarin Chinese are required. Excellent English drafting and speaking skills are essential.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION: The complete position description listing all of the duties and responsibilities may be obtained on our website at <http://www.ait.org.tw/en/job-opportunities.html>.

HIRING PREFERENCE SELECTION PROCESS: When qualified, applicants in the following hiring preference categories are extended a hiring preference in the order listed below. Therefore, it is essential that these applicants accurately describe their status on the application. Failure to do so may result in a determination that the applicant is not eligible for a hiring preference.

HIRING PREFERENCE ORDER:

- (1) AEFM / USEFM who is a preference-eligible U.S. Veteran*
- (2) AEFM / USEFM
- (3) FS on LWOP

* IMPORTANT: Applicants who claim status as a preference-eligible U.S. Veteran must submit a copy of the most recent Member Copy Four (4) of the DD-214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty, and, if applicable, a letter from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. If claiming conditional eligibility for U.S. Veterans' preference, applicants must submit proof of conditional eligibility. If the written documentation confirming eligibility is not received in the HR office by the closing date of the vacancy announcement, the U.S. Veterans' preference will not be considered in the application process. Mission HR's decision on eligibility for U.S. Veterans' preference after reviewing all required documentation is final.

 This level of preference applies to all Foreign Service employees on LWOP.
